Lesson outline	In this lesson, you are going to read about the Ice Witch and you are going to find the key information in the text. You need to make sure you follow the text carefully so that you can find the information to answer the questions.	In this lesson, you are going to use the information you have written about your witch. You will box up this information to make it easier for your big write.	In this lesson, you will be reading information on the desert witch. You will also be looking at features of an information text. These features you will be able to use in your own writing about the witch you have created.	In this lesson, you will be starting to write about the witch you have created. You are going to be introducing the witch you have created and describing what they look like. Remember to use those very important describing words.	In this lesson, you are going to be continuing writing about the witch that you have created so far. Yesterday you introduced your witch and described what they would look like. Today you are going to be writing about where your witch lives and what their home looks like.
