	Lesson outline	In this lesson, you are going to be continuing writing about the witch that you have created so far. You have already introduced the witch and talked about their appearance and where they live.	In this lesson, you will read a new story called 'Baba Yaga' and think about what you have understood from the story.	In this lesson, you will memorise our story 'Baba Yaga' by reading the story, mapping the story, stepping the story and speaking the story.	In this lesson, you will develop detail about the character's feelings in the opening scene.	In this lesson, you will use prepositional phrases of place to describe a setting you have created.
	Extra Notes	Today you are going to write about the witch's behaviour and to conclude all the information you have written so far.	Complete suffix -ed spelling activity. Read through the new story: Baba Yaga. Complete the story matrix to show an understanding of the story.	Recap the story of Baba Yaga. Look at the story map. Create your own story map. Retell the story from your story map and add actions.	Complete the recap activity. Complete suffix -ing spelling activity. Read the opening of the story and complete the character grid. Complete the challenge activity.	Complete the recap activity. Look at the pictures of the settings and follow the instructions. Create your own detailed picture setting. Write 3 sentence including the prepositional phrases. Complete the challenge activity.
